Original Sprout {Holiday Giveaway & Promotion}

Chemicals...Chemicals...Chemicals! That is all you hear anymore in the media. They are in our food, cleaning products, bath products and even in the products we use on our children. It is overwhelming and scary!

I am not really a big product person. I don't spend hours on end doing research, shopping and discussing the different products on the market. But what I can tell you is I love companies that create green and safe products for my family.

We were recently given the chance to try out the all natural Original Sprout Miracle Detangler, Shampoo and Scrumptious Body Lotion.

All of their products were developed with the whole family in mind. Now it is easier because you don't have to buy separate products for your different family members, everyone can use the same one, yay! Original Sprout's products use soothing organic botanicals and they don't include harmful ingredients like PhytoEstrogens (which is linked to early puberty, hormone disruption & fertility problems).

After I used the shampoo, I noticed our hair felt shinier, healthier and I couldn't resist smelling the kids' hair all day! The detangler is great at working out the toughest tangles and knots and it has made my life a lot easier when trying to brush my hair after a shower. It has an added benefit of repelling lice and insects because it contains organic Rosemary and Basil. No lice = happy mamas!

But the Scrumptious Baby Cream is my favorite and I have totally claimed this one as my own. It has a wonderfully mild scent and is a very light cream, unlike some of those heavy, greasy ones. Not only are they great products, but the packaging is very eye catching. Their bottles are very elegant and look great displayed in a guest bathroom.
